

A Sample Partnership Agreement

How a Partnership Agreement Helps Your Business

You and your partner(s) are in the early phases of planning your new business venture. This is a good time to start thinking about every one of your duties, rights, and responsibilities. This sample partnership agreement can assist you in making decisions such as:

- How much money is each of the partners investing at the onset?
- Is everyone contributing monetarily or will someone contribute in kind with expertise, business contacts, etc?
- Will each of you be paid a salary, and if so how much?
- How will you treat the net profit at the end of your fiscal year? Your choices are: plough it (invest it) back into the business, split it amongst yourselves (decide on the percentages now), or a combination.
- If there is a tie when a significant decision needs to be made, how will you break the tie?
How about when a dispute arises? Will you need arbitration, mediation, etc?
- Should the business be dissolved, how will you proceed?

In planning your business, you are better off thinking about what-if scenario beforehand. This is where this sample can assist you. Note, however, that it is only a guideline and not a legal document. You are encouraged to speak to a lawyer.
